

Giving Back...

Published
August 2013 by
The Will Flores Fund

The Will Flores Fund presents...

Stillness in Motion

Opening: Sunday, Sept. 22 2-5:00 p.m.

15 Artists Donate Proceeds To Benefit Community Organizations

Spearheaded by artist Christopher Schulte, fifteen local artists are showing their art at Stillness in Motion with proceeds benefiting The Will Flores Fund which gives 90% of its funds annually to under served community organizations.

This year's contributing artists are:

Lynne Bode . Carol Corey . Tim Daly . Suzy Farren
Joanne Kluba . Noel Leicht . Lyn Magee
Celia McManus . Garry McMichael . Christopher Schulte
Kim Sindel . Larry Smith . Tim Tanz
Don Wilson . Barbara Zucker

Featuring...

The Mala Project

A collaboration with Tim Daly, ceramics instructor at Webster University, Red Door Studio and community volunteers, the Mala Project features an installation of 108 hand-built Japanese tea bowls which will be for sale and distributed at a special closing celebration on Sunday, October 20. Proceeds from the sales will support local food programs.

Lingli Zhang finishing her tea bowl for the project.

Special Closing Tea Ceremony Sunday, Oct. 20 at 2:00 p.m.
to celebrate community involvement in the MALA PROJECT.

2013
WFF ART EXHIBITION
LOCATION

21 O'FALLON ST. on the Riverfront

The William A. Kerr Foundation, will again host the WFF Opening. It is located on the north end of the Riverfront, across from Trail Net /Cassilly Park and old UnionElectric & Laclede Power Plants. Follow Wharf St. (Lenore Sullivan Blvd. to north end.)

Last Year's Beneficiaries

- Ali Forney Center
- City Harvest
- The Family Center
- Alternatives with Education
- Discovering Options
- Earth Dance Farms
- Inside Dharma
- Operation Food Search in conjunction with 15 local food pantries
- Prison Performing Arts
- SAGE
- The Women's Foundation / Safe Connections
- The Women's Place

(See instructions for submitting proposals for 2013 on next page.)

Letterhead artwork: Left to right by Christopher Schulte, Lyn Magee, Kim Sindel, Joanne Kluba, Noel Leicht.

The Will Flores Fund Mission Statement

To utilize the resources of the artistic community to underwrite programming and assist the disadvantaged and disabled. To provide mentoring, inspiration and funding for children's art programs and activities.

The Will Flores Fund is a 501 (c) (3) organization. Contributions are tax deductible in accordance with the tax code.

Meet Lyn Magee

St. Louisan Lyn Magee is a seasoned yoga practitioner, teacher and artist. Her work is influenced by her Buddhist meditation and several styles of Hatha Yoga which she practices.

Lyn is active with Alternatives with Education and is on the Board of Directors of The Turner Center for the Arts. She is a loyal supporter and a contributor to WFF.

Saluting WFF Volunteers

Thomas Adams, Jason Bishop, Tari Brown, Bob Feeney, Wendy Graefe, Kathleen Hachegechog, Frank Jambrosic, Karen Kelly, Melanie Klug, Patrick Leonard, Susan Linhardt, Debbie Nuenberger, Tim Tanz, Mark Wigginton and Robert Winters.

WFF Board of Directors

President Christopher Schulte with Lynne Bode, Noel Leicht, Denise Mandel, Kim Sindel and David Wiegert.

November 1 - Deadline For 2013 Funding Applications

Community organizations and friends of The Will Flores Fund are welcome to submit applications to fund organizations that fulfill WFF's mission statement. (See page one.)

Applications must be postmarked or delivered by November 1, 2013. For information, see: www.willfloresfund.org. Direct questions to: christopher@willfloresfund.org.

Preparing for the MALA PROJECT

Webster University Ceramics Professor Tim Daly preparing clay for the MALA PROJECT. Shown with Christopher Schulte

Visitors to Past WFF Exhibitions...

The Will Flores Fund
6237 Wade Ave., St. Louis, MO 63139

OPENING...

The Will Flores Exhibition

Stillness in Motion

Sunday, Sept. 22 2-5 p.m.

At 21 O'Fallon St.

Located north of the Riverfront